EXHIBIT B

Data Attribution Corroborating Image — Jul. 31, 2005

This exhibit reproduces a contemporaneous screenshot of Google Earth Web's on-screen "Data attribution" panel (which the application displays only when a user affirmatively opens it, and which is not part of the underlying map view), captured at the identical camera position as the companion Exhibit [A] historical-imagery screenshot dated Jul. 31, 2005, and independently re-confirmed on Sept. 13, 2026.

Imaging Format Note — July 31, 2005 image: This image is rendered in natural color, as directly observed in Google Earth Web's Historical Imagery display of the underlying NMRGIS aerial data. This is consistent with the national transition of federally-coordinated aerial imagery acquisition to standardized natural-color format beginning in 2003 under USDA's National Agriculture Imagery Program (NAIP), which replaced predominantly black-and-white orthophoto base imagery. (NAIP is a distinct federal program from NMRGIS, the actual state source cited for this image — offered here only as supporting timeframe context, not as an NMRGIS-specific statement.)

EXHIBIT B

Data Attribution Corroborating Image — Oct. 5, 1997

This exhibit reproduces a contemporaneous screenshot of Google Earth Web's on-screen "Data attribution" panel (which the application displays only when a user affirmatively opens it, and which is not part of the underlying map view), captured at the identical camera position as the companion Exhibit [A] historical-imagery screenshot dated Oct. 5, 1997, and independently re-confirmed on Sept. 13, 2026.

Companion Exhibit [A]: Google Earth Web, Historical Imagery layer, black-and-white aerial image of Zorro Ranch, Stanley, Santa Fe County, NM, dated Oct. 5, 1997. The on-screen "Data attribution" panel states: "This map includes data from: U.S. Geological Survey. Imagery from the dates: older-10/5/1997."

Imaging Format Note — Oct. 5, 1997 image: This image is rendered in black-and-white (panchromatic/grayscale) format, as directly observed in Google Earth Web's Historical Imagery display of the underlying U.S. Geological Survey aerial data. This is consistent with USGS's Digital Orthophoto Quadrangle (DOQ) program, which produced imagery in black-and-white, natural-color, or color-infrared formats across 1987–2006, with black-and-white being the predominant format for aerial photography of this era.

Google Earth Image of Zorro Ranch, Stanley, Santa Fe County, New Mexico

NOTE: October 5, 1997 (Pre-Major Construction)

- Undeveloped high desert terrain; sparse natural scrub vegetation typical of Santa Fe County at ~6,000 ft elevation
- No main residence structure present
- access road or dirt track visible
- No outbuildings, pools, or formal landscaping
- Raw land essentially in its natural state

EPSTEIN'S IMPROVEMENTS TO ZORRO RANCH

The main residence and outbuildings at Zorro Ranch.

Source: United States v. Maxwell, No. 1:20-cr-00330 (S.D.N.Y. 2020)

Zorro Ranch required continual upkeep and underwent frequent improvements from 1994 to 2019. Ranch personnel maintained regular documentation detailing maintenance requirements and taskings. Maintenance, repair, renovations, and other improvements had occurred on an ongoing basis over the years that Epstein owned the property. The Commission has not conducted a complete accounting of maintenance.

The financial records relevant to acquisition, construction, maintenance, and operation of Zorro Ranch are scattered and incomplete. The full scope of spending at Zorro Ranch — total construction costs, staff payroll over at least 25 years, property tax history — is not available

28. On or about May 6, 2014, Zorro Trust filed a "request for field assignment" with the State Land Office, seeking approval to add a grass aircraft landing strip to the property. (EFTA00101509) However, by letter dated May 12, 2014, Matt Grippi on behalf of the Zorro Trust withdrew the request. (EFTA00101512) It is not clear at this time why the request was withdrawn or when subsequently the landing strip was constructed. Flight records establish that flights terminated at Zorro Ranch, indicating that an airstrip was in use during Epstein's ownership of Zorro Ranch.

29. United States, Department of Justice. Document EFTA01305574. The Epstein Files, www.justice.gov/epstein/doj-disclosures. Accessed 4 Aug. 2026.

It is not clear at this time whether Epstein acquired title to the 7,621.74 acres in one transaction or whether he added acreage to the ranch over the years.²³

Epstein's Improvements to Zorro Ranch

What would become the 28,636 square-foot main residence did not exist upon Epstein's purchase of Zorro Ranch. Before this mansion was constructed, Epstein used a temporary structure which witnesses described as "almost like a log cabin or a mobile home" that was "made to be very nice."²⁴ Over time, a variety of structures were constructed totaling approximately fifty thousand square feet. These structures included staff cabins, guesthouses, stables, and other function-based outbuildings. As one witness described it, "there were all sorts of different homes, like, little cabins or guesthouses, where different staff would live."²⁵ Witnesses have stated that when visiting the ranch, they entered through the back of the house, through a mudroom adjacent to the kitchen, and were not permitted in other areas. Generally, they were not allowed in the rest of the house, although one witness was allowed into a library off the kitchen and occasionally in Ghislaine's bedroom.

Epstein closely directed the many improvements to the property, including construction of the main residence. The main residence was constructed by Bradbury & Stamm Construction.²⁶ According to the Santa Fe County Assessor, the Zorro Ranch is comprised of 7,621.74 acres.²⁷ Improvements include a three-story 28,636 square-foot main residence constructed in 1999; a 434 square-foot guest house constructed in 1999; a 1,895 square-foot guest house constructed in 1962; a 2,754 square-foot guest house constructed in 1994; a 1,896 square-foot guest house constructed in 1994; a 2,164 square-foot guest house constructed in 1999; a 600 square-foot guest house constructed in 1998; a 1,032 square-foot guest house constructed in 1994, and a 1,636 square-foot guest house constructed in 1994. At one point, a helipad was constructed as part of a labyrinth garden. Epstein also had a private airstrip and hangar built.²⁸ Epstein was also accused of relocating native petroglyphs on his property from one location to the next.²⁹

23. In April 2019 Epstein stated that his ranch sits on 10,000 acres and "I have turned down 75m for my ranch." (EFTA01612462)

ZORRO RANCH – ACREAGE AND LEASES

PROPERTY RECORDS

Zorro Ranch — Land Holdings and State Lease Parcels

Source: New Mexico State Land Office; satellite imagery, Google Maps

The state and federal leases are subject to use and other conditions administered by the NMSLO and the Federal Bureau of Land Management (BLM). As discussed below, Epstein did not always comply with these conditions, nor were they always enforced by NMSLO and BLM. By letter dated November 10, 1993, NMSLO advised Epstein that he had not paid his lease fee by the October 1, 1993, due date and that consequently, a late fee had been assessed.²¹

On July 20, 1994, Ghislaine Maxwell signed a sworn appraisal of grazing and agricultural lands, attesting that she had inspected the property, was a disinterested party, and that the cash value per acre of the land was $300, if sold, and $400 per acre for lease purposes.

ACQUISITION OF ZORRO RANCH

Kelly released a statement, stating: "In 1993, I was asked by the King family, with whom I was well acquainted, if I would assist with a real estate transaction between an out-of-state buyer and the King family with respect to one of the King family properties. That out-of-state buyer turned out to be Jeffrey Epstein." Kelly admitted to meeting Mr. Epstein in connection with the transaction, stating: "I assisted with the transaction, as an attorney, at the King family's request. I do not specifically recall any direct interactions with Mr. Epstein in connection with that transaction, and I do not recall ever encountering him again after that time." Kelly's name was listed in Epstein's black book of contacts. Kelly stated he had "absolutely no knowledge of Epstein's criminal conduct until it was reported in the press."¹⁹

In response to a request for information, the USAO-NM stated that it could not "comment on the internal processes or deliberations that occur within our office." Records obtained by the NMSLO shed no light on Kelly's role in the real estate transaction beyond what Kelly later reported to the press.²⁰

Zorro Ranch is comprised of the following real property interests, which include land owned through a Special Warranty Deed, as well as state and federal grazing and agricultural leases:

84.86 acres — Section 36, T13N, R9E (Waterline Right-of-Way R-30137)

1,158.97 acres — Section 16 + parts of Section 2, T12N, R9E (Grazing Lease GR-2122)

Land appraisals dated May 22, 2012 (ADP-303, ADP-304) BLM assignments for federal land parcels (acreage unconfirmed at this time)

Public Court Docket and Key Filings Referencing an Unproduced Plea Agreement

State of Florida v. [REDACTED], Case No. [REDACTED]

Prepared: September 12, 2026. This document collects, in full pinpoint-citation form, the public docket and the two certified/on-file court filings that reference a written plea agreement which is not present anywhere in the case record. It is provided as a research aid for further legal use and has not itself been reviewed or filed by an attorney.

Relevant content: the form imposes, by handwritten entry under the "FIREARM" provision, "the THREE (3) year minimum imprisonment provision of section 775.087(2), Florida Statutes" as to Count I. No other special-provision box on the three-page form (prison releasee re-offender, habitual felony offender, habitual violent felony offender, three-time violent felony offender, violent career criminal, etc.) is marked or completed, notwithstanding [REDACTED] prior record. This is the document establishing that only the statutory 3-year firearm minimum — and no available recidivist enhancement — was imposed.

Significance [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] between the hearing date both orders are legally deemed to have taken effect on and the date each was actually reduced to writing and filed. The order itself has not yet been pulled and read in full; obtaining and reviewing it is a reasonable next step before this document is relied on.

III. Significance of These Citations Read Together

Docket Index No. [REDACTED] (Waiver of Rights, filed [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] own initialed statement that a written plea agreement exists and contains specific promises made to him.

Docket Index No. [REDACTED] (Order of Revocation of Probation, entered [REDACTED] nunc pro tunc [REDACTED] is the court’s own order directing the reader to “see attached” that same plea agreement. Read together, both a certified court order and the defendant’s own signed waiver confirm the existence of a written plea agreement that has never been produced in this public docket, notwithstanding that the docket is otherwise a meticulously documented, [REDACTED] entry record with exact official-records book-and-page citations for every judgment entered in the case.

Public Court Docket and Key Filings Referencing an Unproduced Plea Agreement State of Florida v. [REDACTED] Case No. [REDACTED]

Prepared: September 12, 2026. This document collects, in full pinpoint-citation form, the public docket and the two certified/on-file court filings that reference a written plea agreement which is not present anywhere in the case record. It is provided as a research aid for further legal use and has not itself been reviewed or filed by an attorney.

I. Master Citation — Full Case Docket

State of Florida v. [REDACTED] Case No. [REDACTED], Circuit Court of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, in and for Palm Beach County, Florida, Docket & Documents Register ([REDACTED] docket entries, Screens 1–9 of 9), Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller, Palm Beach County (Hon. Note on pagination: the eCaseView system displays only 25 docket entries per screen. The complete [REDACTED] entry docket therefore requires paging through all nine (9) result screens; no single URL or printout captures the full docket in one view. A full nine-screen image capture of the docket as it existed on June 9, 2026 is retained locally as “eCaseview 3_Docket and Documents-1.jpg” through “-9.jpg” (Screen 9 has a continuation page, “-9-pafrrt ii.jpg”). Screen 1 of 9 only (Docket Index Numbers “DIN” 1–25) is additionally saved as a paginated PDF, “Dockets and Documents - eCaseView.pdf.” Anyone re-verifying this record independently must page through all nine screens (or pull all nine local images) to see the complete [REDACTED] entry docket — Screen 1 alone will not show Docket Index Numbers [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] which appear on Screen 9 of 9.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS SHEET

By placing my initials beside the following paragraphs, I state that I understand the contents of each item and I am waiving my rights by having read each item or by having each item read and explained to me by my attorney and qualified interpreter if applicable; and that each item so initialed is true and correct as it applies to me.

1. I am the defendant in the above-mentioned matter(s), and I am represented by the attorney indicated below. I understand I have the right to be represented by an attorney at all stages of the proceeding until the case is terminated, and if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed free of charge.
2. I understand I am giving up my right to a trial and to have my case decided by a jury or a judge.
3. I understand I am giving up my right to confront, cross-examine and ask questions of the State's witnesses.
4. I understand I am giving up my right to call witnesses and make them come to court and testify.
5. I understand I am giving up my right to testify at a trial before a jury or a judge.
6. I understand I am giving up my right to make the State prove guilt a) by presenting evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that I am guilty or b) by presenting evidence that by a preponderance of the evidence I am in Violation of Probation.
7. I understand that by entering this plea, I waive my right to direct appeal of any matters relating to judgment, including the issue of guilt or innocence, unless I plead no contest, specifically reserving my right to appeal.
8. I understand that if I were to be convicted of another charge in the future, any state or federal court could use the conviction in this case against me to enhance a charge, increase the sentence or impose a possible mandatory sentence even if adjudication of guilt in the present case is withheld.
9. I agree that there is a factual basis for the charges to which I am pleading guilty or no contest. I understand that once the plea is accepted by the court, there will not be a trial or further determination of my guilt or innocence of these charges.
10. I understand that by entering this plea, if I am sentenced to incarceration, and if this offense is found to be a sexually motivated offense or if I have been previously convicted of a sexually motivated offense, I may subject myself to involuntary civil commitment as a sexually violent predator both for this case and if I should become incarcerated in the future.
11. No one has forced me, pressured me, intimidated me or has made any threats against me to get me to give up these rights and enter this plea. No one has made any promises or representations to me, other than those in the written plea agreement, to get me to give up these rights. The only promises or representations made to me are those listed in the plea agreement.
12. I have discussed this case with my attorney, including the nature of the charges. My attorney has done everything I have asked him/her to do and I am fully satisfied with the representation I have received. I understand that for the crime(s) for which I am charged, the maximum sentence is 20 years and the minimum sentence is 0.

I understand if I am not a United States citizen, this plea may be used by the United States Government as a basis to deport me, prevent me from becoming a U.S. citizen, prevent me from obtaining or retaining my alien status or prevent me from obtaining or retaining a Permanent Resident Card (Green Card), whether or not I am adjudicated guilty or whether adjudication of guilt is withheld, and whether the crime is a misdemeanor or a felony. Should this plea result in my deportation it would not change my decision to plead guilty/no contest in this case.

I understand that no one can assure me of how much gain time or any other form of early release credit I will receive on a prison sentence, nor my eligibility for any form of early release. Any representations regarding those issues are not binding on the Court. I understand that I should assume I will serve every day of any jail or prison sentence imposed.

15. I understand that by pleading guilty or no contest that I am also giving up my right to contest any motion to suppress any evidence seized by law enforcement or any statement I made to law enforcement or any [REDACTED] in this matter unless I plead no contest, specifically reserving my right to
